Chinese Deny Japanese Claim Railway Is Cut

As Nipponese Attack Toward Suchow, Defenders Say Lunghai Line Holds

Japanese Forces Are Using Tanks

SHANGHAI (AP)—Japanese army spokesmen Monday night announced Nippon's gigantic net of steel was steadily being drawn tighter around strategic Suchow, with one column driving forward less than 10 miles from that city.

That column, leading in what the Japanese called the race for the nerve centre of the central China battle area, was advancing after capturing Siao-hsien, 15 miles southwest of Suchow.

The war offered the dramatic spectacle of Japanese forces estimated at 200,000, well equipped with tanks, planes and heavy artillery, moving in from all directions on Suchow, where the vital east-west Lunghai railway crosses the north-south Tientsin-Pukow line.

Sharply challenging Japanese assertions the Chinese must either surrender or perish, a spokesman for the Chinese high command at Hankow declared the Japanese were "still remote from the Lunghai both in distance and strength."

Encirclement of Suchow was accomplished, the Japanese said, by closing the last gap to the west, just below the Lunghai railway near Tangshan. That railroad town is approximately 50 miles west of Suchow.

Troops fighting toward the railway from the north and south converged near Tangshan, the Japanese reported, and then fought their way eastward along the railway to Hwangkow, only 30 miles from Suchow.

The Japanese said troops which Sunday cut the Lunghai line near Sinanchen, in Kiangsu province, 67 miles east of Suchow, were pushing rapidly westward toward the junction city.

ACROSS CANAL

Pihshien, long-besieged city, 25 miles northwest of Suchow, was captured and the Chinese defenders were driven across the Grand Canal, the Japanese dispatches said.

General Count Juichi Terauchi, commander of the Japanese forces in North China, moved his headquarters to an undisclosed point "somewhere south of Peiping," assuming personal command.

FIRE ENGINE IN ACCIDENT

Truck Collides With Auto On Way to Roof Fire on Pandora Avenue

A city fire truck speeding to a roof fire on Pandora Avenue this morning collided with an automobile at Yates Street and Fernwood Road, and while both machines were damaged extensively there were no personal injuries.

A police report said the fire truck was driven by Fireman Gray Russell and the car was driven by Albert Kirkbride, 2205 Chambers Street.

The truck was traveling east on Yates Street and making the turn north on Fernwood Road. As it rounded the corner the driver was forced to the northeast side of the intersection by a parked car at the stop sign. As the engine swung over it hit the telephone pole on the northeast corner then veered over towards the centre part of the road and collided with the car.

A hose rack on the fire engine was ripped off by the impact and equipment on the machine was damaged.

FIRE DESTROYS LUMBER MILL

Loss at False Creek in Vancouver Is Estimated at $150,000

VANCOUVER (CP)—Fire of unknown origin Sunday night destroyed the False Creek Lumber Company's mill and planing shed here. The loss is estimated at $150,000. It is two-thirds covered by insurance.

Six fire department companies and a fireboat answered the two-alarm call to the mill, located on False Creek, which fringes on the downtown business district.

Despite a high wind firemen succeeded in bringing the fire under control and preventing it spreading to nearby lumber yards.

The mill had not been operating for the past two weeks.

The fire apparently started in the boiler room and was discovered by a watchman who turned in the alarm. By the time firemen arrived the flames were sweeping through the main building and had spread to the nearby planing mill.

The dry kiln and a quantity of lumber were not affected.

The loss estimate was based on damage to machinery in the main part of the mill.

Company officials did not say whether it was planned to rebuild the destroyed buildings immediately.

Ordinarily the mill employed a total of 130 men.

Sir Kingsley Wood Replaces Viscount Swinton; MacDonald For Colonies

LONDON (CP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain today announced re-alignment of his cabinet, sending Sir Kingsley Wood, Minister of Health, to replace Viscount Swinton, Secretary of State for Air, target of charges by all parties that air rearmament is lagging.

Lord Swinton resigned from the cabinet as a result of last week's debate in the House of Commons in which critics charged the air defence program was being far out-paced by Germany.

Rt. Hon. Malcolm MacDonald was appointed Secretary for the Colonies and was succeeded as Secretary for the Dominions by Lord Stanley, former Parliamentary Secretary to the Admiralty.

Baron Harlech, the former William Ormsby-Gore, resigned as Secretary for the Colonies. This was a result of his entering the House of Lords after the recent death of his father and his succession to the title.

NEW HEALTH MINISTER
Rt. Hon. Walter E. Elliott, Secretary for Scotland, replaces Sir Kingsley Wood as Minister of Health.

Lieut.-Col. D. M. Colville, Financial Secretary to the Treasury gained cabinet rank, becoming Secretary for Scotland.

Lord Swinton, in a letter to Mr. Chamberlain, said his position was rendered difficult because he sat in the House of Lords and was unable to speak for his department in the Commons.

STANDS ON RECORD
The letter, said he was "quite content to leave the work I have tried to do at the Air Ministry, to be judged at the right time in the light of fuller knowledge than can obviously now be made available."

The men fled from the front door.

OTTAWA (CP)—The British Air Mission, headed by Commander J. G. Weir, conferred for two hours today with Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Minister of Defence. With the mission was a representative of Sir Francis Floud, British High Commissioner to Canada.

It is understood particulars relating to the construction capabilities of all Canadian aircraft plants were placed before the British representatives. The mission is believed to be satisfied the Canadian industry is in good shape to take care of whatever the British government may require of it.

The conference today, it is said, had to do almost exclusively with the construction of various types of aircraft, built to standards re-

SAFE BLOWERS ARE DISTURBED

Unsuccessfully Try to Break Open McGavin's Bakery Strong Box

An unsuccessful attempt early yesterday morning to blow the safe of McGavin's Bakery on Quadra Street was being investigated by city detectives today after the safecrackers had been disturbed at their work by an employee.

The attempt was reported at 3:45 and Chief J. A. McLellan, with Detective Inspector J. H. Rogers, investigated immediately. They found the door of the safe buckled by the explosion of nitroglycerine, but it was apparent the safecrackers had not used enough explosive to complete the job.

They were disturbed by Harry O'Reilly, who came down to find the safe on a sack of flour and sacking used to muffle the sound.

Two men passing the premises about the time of the attempt reported they saw a man who disappeared into Central Park. Detectives believe the attempt was made by safecrackers who successfully robbed the Palm Dairies and New Method Laundry recently.

Two other break-ins were also reported over the week-end. At 6:15 last night Constable Charles Webb reported he found the Victoria Box and Paper Company premises open, entrance having been gained by prying off two iron doors. Three gross of lead pencils, $10 in cash and stamps and a bottle of mucilage were reported taken. Found around the premises were red cards that bore the words "G Boys," which led police to believe the theft was the work of young boys.

Smith, Davidson & Wright, wholesalers, was entered at 9:20 last night through a window off Waddington Alley, but nothing was taken. V. Griffin, employed at 534 Yates Street, heard breaking glass and reported the entry to police.

Vatican Sends Envoy To Franco

Recognition of Insurgent Regime in Spain Completed By Holy See

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy (AP)—A Vatican news service announced today the Holy See and the Spanish insurgent government had arranged to exchange plenipotentiary diplomatic representatives, completing formal recognition by the Vatican of Gen. Franco's regime.

The Spanish insurgents named as ambassador to the Holy See Don Jose Maria de Yanguas y Avedillo. (He also is a member of the national council of Franco's state party.)

Pope Pius chose as apostolic nuncio to Nationalist (insurgent) Spain, his former nuncio in Austria, Monsignor Gaetano Cicognani.

Diplomatic contacts between the Holy See and the insurgent regime have been maintained for the last several months by charges d'affaires. There have been no diplomatic relations between the Vatican and the Barcelona government for more than a year.

Factions Fight At Mexico University

Several Wounded in Clashes Between Socialists and Opponents

MEXICO CITY (AP)—After clashes in which several persons were wounded, students of the University of Mexico today re-occupied university buildings which had been seized by Socialists hostile to the institution.

The students recaptured their buildings in a concerted attack about noon after earlier forays had been beaten off by the Socialists, whose fire from roof tops wounded a number of students.

Several hundred members of "Socialist Youth," armed with pistols and knives, seized the main university building, the preparatory school and the schools of commerce and law before dawn and defied efforts of police and firemen to eject them.

Students then took up the fight and shortly after noon completed reoccupation of all buildings, scaling the walls of adjoining buildings and advancing over roof tops.

CHANGES SOUGHT

The disorders came after long attempts by Socialists to deprive the university of its autonomy guaranteed by law, bring it into the federal system and introduce Socialist education.

Rector George and the students had strongly opposed these attempts.

The clash was the newest manifestation of internal unrest after the March 18 expropriation of 17 British and United States oil companies.

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Fire which started in a basement kitchen killed 25 persons at the Terminal Hotel here early today and left 13 injured and an undetermined number of others missing.

More than a dozen persons were rescued or leaped to safety. Reports to firemen and police indicated from 50 to 65 persons were registered in the 62-room five-story brick and frame building.

A high wind fanned the flames. City sanitary crews were set to work in mid-morning removing the debris. With tractor power barred because of the danger of pulling down the walls, engineers estimated two days would be required to clear out the wreckage.

A number of the dead were found in the charred timbers and steel which dropped from the roof, carrying away the burning floors.

Police Chief M. A. Hornsby expressed belief "10 or 15 more" bodies would be found in the mass of debris piled up on the street level.

The hotel's guest list and records were destroyed.

SPREAD RAPIDLY

The speed with which the flames gained headway in the brick and frame building amazed witnesses.

Police Lieut. J. T. Laseter said he was five blocks away in a patrol car when he saw the fire shoot up, and by the time he arrived smoked veiled all the building.

"I couldn't see them," he said, "but I could hear people on the upper floors crying out and praying."

Mayor Will Be Hartsfield said the hotel was of a construction type no longer permitted under the city building code, but had been remodeled somewhat from its original status.

The fire was described by Fire Chief O. J. Parker as "the deadliest in the history of Atlanta."

Mexican Issue In British House

Opposition Criticizes Attitude of Government Before Diplomatic Break

LONDON (CP)—The opposition rattled questions at the government in the House of Commons today over the quarrel with Mexico.

Richard Butler, under-secretary for foreign affairs, explained the origins of the dispute—the British protest against Mexican confiscation of the oil wells, the British request for payment of an installment on a debt due four months ago, and then, to Great Britain's "surprise and regret," Mexico's severance of diplomatic relations.

The British Government, Mr. Butler added, would not cease to protect substantial British interests in Mexico.

Labor was sharply critical of the last British note to Mexico. Ernest Thurtle declared its "offensive, hectoring phrases" were likely to produce a result of this kind. David Grenfell questioned whether Italy was to be requested in similar terms to pay her outstanding war debts.

READY TO VOYAGE

MEXICO CITY (CP)—Owen St. Clair O'Malley, British Minister to Mexico, had his belongings packed today, prepared to leave for home following his recall late Saturday in the diplomatic crisis.

matic rupture between Great Britain and Mexico.

Britain's action was in response to that taken by the Mexican government Friday in withdrawing Prime Villa Michel, Minister to London, because of Britain's "unfriendly attitude" toward Mexico.

At the week-end labor and political organizations lined up behind President Lazaro Cardenas in the matter. The Congress of the revolutionary (government) party, the confederation of Mexican workers and other labor organizations joined in declaring themselves behind the president and his "Mexico for the Mexican" program.

The majority bloc in the Chamber of Deputies described the break with Britain as "absolutely justified," in view of Britain's attitude in sending a sharp note concerning debts.

RAIN SLOWS UP SPAIN BATTLES

Weather Makes Difficulties For Francoists as They Advance

HENDAYE, France (AP)—Heavy rains lashed the coastal Sierras today, slowing the insurgents' eastern Spanish offensive after it had made steady gains in the rugged mountain terrain east of Teruel.

Insurgent troops have captured Mount San Cristobal, in the Sierra de Gudar range, advancing into position for an attack on the town of Mora de Rubielos, 20 miles east of Teruel.

Mora de Rubielos dominates the Teruel-Sagunto highway, essential to the insurgents for transport and communications in their campaign against the Mediterranean port cities of Castellon and Valencia. The highway reaches the sea midway between the two.

A secondary mountain road links Mora de Rubielos with Albentosa, Junction town on the Sagunto highway just before it breaks through the Sierras to the coastal plains.

While General Miguel Aranda's main body was pushing back government defenders from the Mount San Cristobal area, other troops under his command were attacking Corbalan, on the western end of the battle line just a few miles northeast of Teruel.

To the east, about halfway between Teruel and the Mediterranean, a force under command of General Garcia Valino was pushing down from the village of Igelsula de Cid, centre of a mountain network of secondary highways, toward Mosqueruela.

Chinese high command today denied Japanese forces had cut or even reached the Lunghai railway either from the north or south or the east or west of Suichow, where the Lunghai crosses the north-south Tientsin-Pukow railway.

A spokesman said China's highest commanders were personally directing operations at the front, that ample reinforcements had reached the endangered positions and that Chinese confidence was greatly increased.

REPORTED IN ROUT
PEIPING (AP)—Communiqués issued by Japan's north China army headquarters here Monday declared Gen. Chiang's defence of the Lunghai railway was turning into a rout, with all lines collapsed and chaos observable at all points.

An army spokesman said that although the fall of Suichow was imminent, this would be of less importance than the fate of some 80 Chinese divisions—400,000 to 800,000 men—he said were trapped along the Lunghai between Siachen, east of Suichow and Langfeng, to the west.

He declared the Chinese had failed to capitalize on the victory of which they boasted at Talerh-chung last month. He said thus far there were no indications of effective Chinese counter-attacks which might endanger Japanese units from the rear.

Candidates In Dewdney Named

Liberal, Conservative and C.C.F. Will Contest Provincial By-election

MISSION CITY (CP)—Nominations for the provincial by-election May 20 closed today with three candidates in the field for voting which may decide what party will form the official opposition in the British Columbia Legislature.

The candidates are David W. Strachan, Dewdney farmer, Liberal; Reeve William A. Jones of Kent municipality east of here in the Fraser Valley, Conservative; and Miss Mildred Osterhout of Vancouver, Co-operative Commonwealth Federation.

The by-election was made necessary by the death last February of Dr. Frank P. Patterson of Vancouver, provincial leader of the Conservative Party, which last session formed the official opposition.

With Dr. Patterson's death the standing in the Legislature was: Liberals 31, Conservatives 7, C.C.F. 7, Independent 1, Labor 1.

Should the Conservative or C.C.F. candidate be elected in the May 20 voting, the official opposition would be automatically decided. If the Liberal wins, the balance of power will lie with Rolf W. Bruhn, Independent, Salmon Arm, and Tom Uphill, Labor, Fernie.

(Mr. Strachan, the Liberal candidate, was born in Ormstown, Que., 59 years ago. He attended schools in Winnipeg, and later the University of Manitoba, where he studied medicine. Eye trouble forced him to give up his university career and he turned to farming.)

mand of the "final drive" to crush Chinese resistance in the Suichow railway zone.

South of Suichow, along the Tientsin-Pukow railway, the Japanese said they had surrounded and were besieging Kuchen while the main body continued up the railroad to assist in the assault on Suichow.

Twenty thousand Chinese troops under command of General Liu Ju-min had been fighting to prevent the Japanese from closing the avenue of possible retreat near Tangshan.

FOUGHT ALL NIGHT

The Japanese said motorized units had captured Shachien, 15 miles southwest of Suichow, after all-night fighting in which the walled city was attacked from three sides. Chinese defenders destroyed bridges over the moat and resisted until artillery blasted holes in the walls and shock troops stormed inside, fighting from house to house.

Mobile Japanese troops pushed in toward Suichow over roads blown up by the retreating Chinese. They were the closest of any Japanese units converging on Suichow.

Meanwhile foreign sources in Shanghai heard Paoing, important city in central Hopeh province, had been besieged by 20,000 Chinese troops and that fighting was going on in the suburbs.

Chinese dispatches indicated greater guerrilla activity by Chinese troops in Kiangsu, Chekiang, Anhwei, Fukien and Kiangsi provinces was expected. Red guerrillas were reported reorganized under General Yeh Ting and detailed to harass Japanese in occupied areas.

CHINESE CLAIMS

HANKOW, China (AP)—The Chinese high command today denied Japanese forces had cut or even reached the Lunghai railway either from the north or south or the east or west of Suichow, where the Lunghai crosses the north-south Tientsin-Pukow railway.

A spokesman said China's highest commanders were personally directing operations at the front, that ample reinforcements had reached the endangered positions and that Chinese confidence was greatly increased.

BRITISH CABINET CHANGES BRING NEW AIR MINISTER

He said that by resigning he would be aiding execution of the air program and maintenance "of public trust" in it.

Replying to Lord Swinton's letter, Mr. Chamberlain wrote he had accepted the resignation and public spirit Lord Swinton had displayed.

"While the responsibility for the administration was mainly yours," the Prime Minister continued, "it was from time to time determined by the cabinet as a whole."

"Recently the cabinet came to the decision the program ought to be considerably accelerated."

JUNIOR POSTS

In changes among the junior ministers Captain Euan Wallace, parliamentary secretary to the Board of Trade, becomes financial secretary to the Treasury; Ronald Cross, government whip, succeeds Captain Wallace at the Board of Trade; Lieut.-Colonel A. J. Muirhead, under-secretary for India, succeeds Lord Stanley; and Captain Harold Balfour, previously a private member, becomes under-secretary for air.

The Air Ministry under Sir Kingsley Wood will have at its head a man of tireless energy. Known as the business man of the cabinet, he reorganized the Post Office Department between 1931 and 1935, modernizing Britain's telephone and telegraph system and carrying out widespread improvements in the postal system.

Three years ago he went to the Ministry of Health, a department with which he had been associated for many years as a junior minister, and with the same energy tackled the pressing problems of national fitness and better housing.

He is short and stout, somewhat resembling Mr. Pickwick.

PALESTINE PROBLEM

Malcolm MacDonald, succeeding Lord Harlech as Colonial Secretary, faces the difficult problem of Palestine. Disorders in the Holy Land continue.

Many political observers consider Mr. MacDonald, son of the late ex-Prime Minister, as having no superior among the young men of the ministry, and probably no equal since the resignation of Anthony Eden.

Four Held In Olympia Death

Men and Girl Detained For Questioning in Reported Suicide Case

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP)—Three men and a girl still were in the county jail here today awaiting further investigation into the death early Sunday of Lee Banker, 21, a garage worker.

Those held are Chester Warner, 32; James Ford, 23; Bud Barnes and his sister Frances, 18. Two other youths, Forest Ginter, half-brother of Barnes, and Larry Hinkle, both about 16, were released early yesterday.

Coroner Smith Troy and police and sheriff's officers were of the opinion, they said, Banker was a suicide, but said they would continue the investigation today in an attempt to learn why the others had taken Banker to downtown Sylvester Park after Banker had made suicide threats.

Woman Sent To Prison As Spy

Four Years Given Edinburgh Hairdresser For Communicating With Nazis

EDINBURGH (AP)—A sentence of four years' penal servitude for spying on Great Britain's vital east coast defences and for communicating with agents in Nazi Germany, was imposed today on little grey-haired Jessie Jordan.

J. C. S. Reid, Solicitor-General for Scotland, told the Scottish High Court of Justiciary that foreign agents mentioned in the indictment to which the 51-year-old Dundee hairdresser pleaded guilty were "foreign agents of Germany."

The indictment charged her with making plans of a prohibited (military) area and obtaining information concerning coastal defence and coastguard stations on the east coast of Scotland.

Mrs. Jordan's counsel said she was Scottish born, but acquired German citizenship by marriage to a German and had spent most of her life in Germany. He contended she had left Germany because she was regarded as a suspect there and because "nationalism meant nothing to her."

Mrs. Jordan received several remittances of not very large, but substantial amounts, Mr. Reid added. The indictment said Mrs. Jordan had obtained information about Montrose and Kildale, important Scottish east coast ports, and various places in between, presumably including Rosyth, where dockyards and works of the North naval base are situated.

CAMPAIGN SPEEDED IN SASKATCHEWAN

The Legislature passed a redistribution bill in March reducing the number of seats from 55 to 52. In the last House the Liberal government, elected June 19, 1934, had 50 seats and the C.C.F. five. Although Conservatives polled 114,973 votes, they failed to elect a member. Liberals polled 206,191 and the C.C.F. 103,582.

SOCIAL CREDIT PLANS

Premier Aberhart announced in Edmonton last night that, because of the short time allowed to give the people a chance to think this whole matter through, meetings planned by the Western Canada Social Credit League in Saskatchewan "will need to take the form of conventions."

As Social Crediters are participating for the first time as a party in a Saskatchewan provincial election, their campaign will be led by Mr. Aberhart and top-ranking cabinet members from Alberta who are officers of the Western Canada Social Credit Association. Mr. Aberhart, Hon. E. C. Manning, Provincial Secretary, and Hon. Lucien Maynard, Minister of Municipal Affairs, visited Saskatchewan last week.

On his return to Edmonton Mr. Aberhart announced the Social Credit association's intention of placing candidates in every constituency. Mr. Aberhart will open his Saskatchewan campaign in Lloydminster tonight, and will

C.C.F. IS CONFIDENT

C.C.F. candidates and campaign managers representing 20 ridings in central and northern Saskatchewan conferred in Saskatoon Saturday to co-ordinate their plans. E. J. Garland and A. M. Nicholson, national and provincial party organizers, respectively, both expressed conviction the C.C.F. would form the next Saskatchewan government.

Liberal headquarters in Regina claimed 32 seats at least were sure to elect Liberals. Premier Patterson said he felt sure his government would be returned.

"Obviously we would not go to the people unless we were confident of victory," he said. "We could remain in office for more than a year yet."

Conservatives are hopeful their youthful, spirited leader, J. G. Diefenbaker, K.C., Prince Albert, will revive their fortunes from the low level reached four years ago.

charged today President Cardenas was trying to "drive him to rebellion" to distract the public from the administration's troubles.

Gen. Cedillo, who has an armed peasant following to whom he has allotted land, on his estate in San Luis Potosi, broke with Cardenas last August and quit the ministry of agriculture.

There since have been frequent rumors he is ready to lead a revolt against the government.

At the week-end reports said federal troops had been sent into San Luis Potosi, northwest of here. They mounted anti-aircraft guns on four church rooftops and established an anti-aircraft unit at a principal street corner, where there are public buildings. Trouble did not develop. There now are nearly 9,000 soldiers there, whereas the usual garrison is 3,500.

Four In Alberta Listed For Trial

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. (CP)—Levi Ambrisl Baldwin of Medicine Hat, former secretary of the brokerage firm of F. C. Rubbra and Company, now in bankruptcy, was arrested late Saturday night at Michel, British Columbia.

The Medicine Hat man, a warrant for whose arrest had been sworn out in Calgary last week, was taken into custody by members of the British Columbia police as he attempted to enter British Columbia from Alberta.

On Sunday Baldwin was escorted to Lethbridge, and kept in custody at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police barracks. Today he was to be charged with conspiracy to defraud before Magistrate A. Beaumont.

His arrest brought to four the number taken into custody on charges arising out of the bankruptcy of F. C. Rubbra and Company, previously F. C. Rubbra, W. D. Smith and N. V. White had been arrested and all are now released on bail.

Court Upholds Labor Board

U.S. Supreme Justices Back Rights of Strikers Against Unfair Practices

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court of the United States ruled today that working men who strike as a result of an unfair labor practice by their employer are entitled to protection of the National Labor Relations Act.

This decision was given in upholding an order by the National Labor Relations Board directing the Mackay Radio and Telegraph Company to reinstate five employees who had gone on strike in San Francisco.

Justice Roberts, who delivered the decision, asserted the strikers remained employees under the Labor Act, "and were protected against the unfair labor practices denounced by it."

Justice Roberts announced no dissent. Justices Cardozo and Reed did not participate.

The court reversed an opinion by the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals refusing to approve reinstatement of the five men on the ground that they had severed their employment by striking.

Justice Roberts said the board's findings as to discrimination were "supported by evidence."

WINS PRIZE IN ARCHITECTURE

Wm. A. MacLaurin of Victoria First in Columbia University Contest

William A. MacLaurin of Victoria has won first prize for an architectural plan in a competition among graduate students of the Columbia University School of Architecture under sponsorship of the New York section of the Illuminating Engineering Society.

Mr. MacLaurin submitted the best solution to a problem involving a public room in a hotel for use interchangeably as a night club and conference room with artificial lighting and ventilation. Graduated with honors last June from the School of Architecture at the University of Washington, Mr. MacLaurin is now studying at Columbia on a Medary Scholarship of the American Institute of Architects. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. D. L. MacLaurin of this city.

Second prize in the competition went to Harvey D. Cohn of New York, who graduated from the Columbia School last year with the Boring Medal. Henry Feigen of New York, another Columbia graduate, received honorable mention.

CHAMBER HAD ACTIVE YEAR

Work Reviewed in Directors' Report Presented at Annual Meeting This Afternoon

Activities of the Chamber of Commerce during the last year were outlined to members today at the annual meeting at Spencer's, in the directors' report, read by George I. Warren, secretary.

One of the chief matters taken up, the report said, was home defence. A special committee was struck, and much important work was done to make recruiting more attractive. The committee endeavored to bring home to employers the necessity of giving their employees, who are members of non-permanent active militia, every opportunity to attend drills and camps.

Briefs were presented on behalf of the chamber to the Rowell Commission. Other matters discussed were a road around the Saanich Peninsula, a wharf in the inner harbor for fishing boats, the Bankruptcy Act, the Hornby immigration plan, the West Coast Road, the British Cinematograph Act, radio affairs and the Sooko fish traps.

The success of the city's 75th anniversary celebration last summer, in which the Junior Chamber played such an important part, was also mentioned in the report. The day and night parades, it was noted, were two of the finest of their kind ever seen in Victoria. The Christmas-tree competition was also most successful, as was the floral window contest, both under the auspices of the Junior Chamber.

The membership drive, under the joint chairmanship of E. H. Harris and George E. MacDonald, resulted in 65 new members being obtained.

The report referred to the loss suffered by the chamber in the deaths of Hon. S. F. Tolmie, James Parfitt, S. J. Halls and William Cathcart.

The audited financial report showed receipts during the year of $7,389.38, made up of $5,369.80 in dues and $2,019.58 in rents.

Disbursements for the year were $7,365.50 in salaries, $1,988.89 for quarters, $274.70 for telephone and telegraph, $228.83 for printing. The balance in the bank at the end of last December was $88.56.

B.C. SEEKS OIL IN PEACE AREA

Pattullo Says House Will Be Asked to Vote Funds For Exploration

AGASSIZ (CP)—Premier T. D. Pattullo told a by-election audience here Saturday night he would ask the next session of the Legislature for money to explore oil possibilities of the Peace River district in the province.

Speaking in behalf of D. W. Strachan, Liberal candidate for the May 20 by-election, the Premier said the exploration would take in 66,000 square miles of the northern district. Referring to his recent trip to Washington, where he conferred with United States officials on a proposed highway through British Columbia and the Yukon to Alaska, the Premier said it could be constructed at a cost of $15,000,000 loaned by the United States government on a basis of capital repayment without interest.

Private School Teachers Meet

Association Holds Annual Convention in City; Harker Re-elected Head

Principals of schools from all parts of the mainland and Vancouver Island were in Victoria over the week-end for the annual convention of the British Columbia Private Schools Association.

Business sessions were held held Saturday morning at St. Christopher's School, and a number of resolutions were discussed. The new provincial curriculum was debated at some length, but no action was taken.

H. Harker, Vancouver, was re-elected president of the association for his second term. P. T. Dale was named secretary. Miss Dora Atkins was chosen president of the Vancouver Island section, with C. V. Milon, secretary.

Mr. Harker reported the association was nearing its objective of 100 per cent representation of all the private schools in the province.

Judge P. S. Lampman and Captain F. G. Dexter, Oak Bay public school supervisor, were speakers at the annual dinner of the association, held at the Beach Hotel in the evening. Judge Lampman reviewed the development of education in Canada in past years, and Captain Dexter spoke of the friendliness between public and private schools on Vancouver Island.

URGE END OF PADLOCK LAW

Prof. E. A. Forsey said reasons for disallowance of the Alberta Legislature's acts by Ottawa should apply in the case of the padlock law.

Duce Recovers Faith In Hitler

Significant Point Seen in Mussolini's Speech By French Writer

PARIS (CP-Havas)—The "certain" fact that Premier Mussolini has recovered complete faith in Reichsfuehrer Hitler is the most significant point that emerges from Il Duce's speech Saturday at Genoa, says the Rome correspondent of Le Temps, an independent newspaper.

The correspondent characterizes the speech as "heavy with destiny." "The advantages which Hitler gave him (Mussolini)," declared Le Temps' correspondent, "are perhaps more important than was at first believed, going beyond... absolute assurance that German expansion will not be directed toward the south."

"It is evidently a question of Italian pre-eminence, conceded by the Reich, in Spain and Yugoslavia, and perhaps even in other countries. It is a question of Reich support for the Mediterranean mission of the Italian peninsula, and perhaps also for the Fascistization of Europe."

ROBBERS FAIL

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police Sunday discovered an unsuccessful attempt had been made to smash open the McLennan, McFeely and Prior Limited Company's office safe here Saturday night. The burglars entered the hardware firm's building through a skylight and slid down a light chain.

Saskatchewan's Election

ON THE EIGHTH DAY OF NEXT MONTH the electors of Saskatchewan will go to the polls to choose a new Legislature. Under the Redistribution Act passed at the last session of the House the number of seats was reduced from 55 to 52. At the general election on June 19, 1934, the Liberal Party returned 50 members, the Farmer-Laborites five, and the Conservatives none. The C.C.F. had no entrants.

Only once since the province of Saskatchewan was established in 1905 has it had a Conservative Prime Minister, and then he was enabled to form an administration with the assistance of five Independents and four Progressives, bringing the coalition's numbers up to a small majority over the 26 Liberals in a House then composed of 63 members. That government ended its career in 1934 and the Conservative Party disappeared completely as far as representation in the Legislature was concerned—although its candidates polled nearly 12,000 more votes than the Farmer-Laborites, and more than half of the Liberal tally. Next months election, however, will be more interesting than usual if the number of aspirants already in the field can be taken as any criterion. Selections to date are as follows:

Liberals	51
Co-operative Commonwealth Fed.	30
Conservatives	23
Social Credit	2
Unity Party	2
Progressive Labor	2
Independent Labor	3
Independent Conservative	1

It has been obvious for some time now that the Social Credit Party intends to make a concerted bid for sufficient votes in Saskatchewan to ensure a trial for Aberhartism in that province. It is expected that exponents of the Alberta economic doctrine will play definitely on the susceptibilities of a people which has tasted eight years of adversity in various forms. It means nothing to the Social Credit Party that the province, for the most part, has been responsible for the root cause of Saskatchewan's troubled period in recent times. But it can be presumed that the electors of that drought-stricken province will not be encouraged to contemplate the fact that the gospel according to the Prophet Aberhart is still a theory which the good people of Alberta are patiently waiting for translation into a condition.

Social Credit speakers in the forthcoming campaign naturally will attempt to make capital out of Alberta's legislation now before the Dominion Government. In brief detail the measures in question—which must be disallowed before July 1 if they are not to become law—are as follows:

The Securities Tax Act: Imposes a capital levy of 2 per cent on the principal of all mortgages, and provides a penalty of 5 per cent per month for failure to pay, thus extinguishing the mortgage in a period of 20 months. In addition, a penalty of $10 per day or $3,650 per year is provided for failure to file on June 1 elaborate details, many of which would not be readily available to the mortgagee, of the mortgage with the province.

The Home Owner's Security Act: Stipulates that no foreclosure can be made for any sum, however small, without a payment of $2,000 being made to the mortgagee. Furthermore, the quarter-section of a farm on which the dwelling stands is exempt from foreclosure at any time. Thus, in effect, when a farmer buys a property and gives a mortgage for part of the purchase price, he automatically becomes the owner—regardless of the amount of his cash deposit or his terms of payment—160 acres plus the farm dwelling.

The Limitation of Actions Act: Requires creditors to seek recovery of any debt incurred prior to 1936 before July 1, 1940, regardless of the date at which the debt matures. Thus, if the creditor cannot arrange a renewal of a debt maturing, say, in 1941, he must rest his hopes for recovering it upon obtaining special permission from the provincial government to institute recovery proceedings after 1940. The presumption is that the permission will be given only on terms favorable to the debtor.

From a study of the foregoing it will be seen that the program about which the Saskatchewan voters will hear much is easily the most comprehensive of its kind ever served up to a Canadian electorate. It combines a levy on capital and debt cancellation at the same time. Small wonder that the leaders of the major parties at Ottawa are not a little concerned.

The Crop and Its Sale

WHEAT SEEDING IS WELL UNDER way in western Canada, moisture reserves are greatly improved as compared with recent years and, given reasonable rains during the growing season, the present outlook is for a crop of comparatively normal proportions. This is the statement of the economist of the Royal Bank of Canada prefacing a general discussion of the Dominion's crop prospects for this year.

With many former markets closed or partially closed by restrictions which were imposed during the depression, there has been some alarm as to the possible effects of a large crop in Canada. It must be self-evident, however, that recent crops have been inadequate, that exports have been largely from carry-over and that in order to maintain a fair volume of exports, larger Canadian crops must be harvested. World supplies are at a low level and it will require a fairly large crop to restore the reserves of Canada and of the world to normal proportions.

Total supplies for the current season (excluding Russia and China) are placed at approximately 3,335 million bushels; this is a slight increase over the amount available during the previous crop year, the decrease in the carry-over being offset by somewhat larger crops. But the distribution of the supplies has shown important changes, crops in importing countries being generally larger and in exporting countries, with the exception of the United States and Australia, smaller. World shipments of wheat this season will therefore be of very moderate volume, approximately 500,000,000 bushels. The world carry-over as at July 31, 1938, is placed at 615,000,000 bushels as compared with the abnormally low total of 531,000,000 on July 31, 1937, but even with this increase stocks will still be well below the average for the five years 1924 to 1928, prior to the time when world surpluses accumulated.

The international movement of wheat has declined drastically in volume—falling from a peak of 947,000,000 bushels in 1928-29 to 523,000,000 in 1935-36, the average for the period being 718,000,000 bushels. In 1936-37 actual shipments comprised 609,000,000 bushels; a further decline during the current year has again reduced shipments to a level estimated at about 500,000,000 bushels. For example, in the five crop years 1923-24 to 1927-28, France, Germany, Italy and Czechoslovakia imported an average of 224,000,000 bushels of wheat; in 1928-29 the total rose to 249,000,000 bushels. During the past four crop years, 1933-34 to 1936-37, the average importation fell to 35,000,000 bushels and for the current season 1937-38, requirements are placed at 56,000,000 bushels.

Now What?

DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN Great Britain and Mexico have been broken off. The British Minister has been recalled from the capital of the southern republic and the Mexican representative has closed his official residence in London.

This development of "unfriendliness" between the two countries is the sequel to Mexico's expropriation a few weeks ago of British and American oil properties valued at $400,000,000.

We are told in a dispatch from Mexico that the diplomatic break with Britain has apparently strengthened popular support of President Lazaro M. Cardenas's program of nationalization of foreign-owned oil properties. But it is pointed out that the country's most pressing problem—one on which many observers believed the fate of the Cardenas administration rests—still remains unsolved. This problem, briefly, is finding a market for the country's government-produced oil, the output of which has fallen sharply because of lack of markets since March 18, when the President expropriated the oil properties mentioned.

In the light of what has happened in Mexico, apart from the diplomatic breach now complete, the question seems to be: What is Great Britain going to do about it? President Cardenas has followed the example set—in another form, it is true—by Japan and other dictator-ridden countries. Britain and those nations involved in that procedure have had to be content with the submission of notes and complaints.

Mexico is taking her rebuff with the same equanimity as Japan and the European totalitarian states have taken theirs.

Down to a Fine Point

BRITAIN'S TEMPLE OF ACCURACY, AS the National Physical Laboratory at Teddington (a London suburb) has been called, lived up to its reputation last year by improving precision instruments to a degree of correctness hitherto unknown. In the annual report of the laboratory for the year 1937, it is stated that a new type of clock has been devised and constructed by the electricity department which is of such remarkable accuracy that its error is only a small fraction of a second a year. The clock, however, is a robust piece of mechanism.

Another investigation carried out by this department at Teddington was into the risk of explosion in the operating theatres of hospitals due to the accidental formation of electric sparks. It was found that it may be possible by the movements of blankets, and so on, to produce sparks capable of igniting anaesthetic vapors. As a result of this work recommendations have been made which are expected to minimize this risk.

Notes

When we say there is nothing in the paper today, we mean there is nothing that would make good gossip if we knew the people.

War-makers must be dumb. Though every war lasts till one side is exhausted, they still think they'll win the next one in six weeks.

GRIT FOR THE TEETH

GRIT may not taste good when it gets in the mouth, but it is simply grand for the teeth, according to Dr. Victor H. Sears, New York dentist, here for the convention of the Wisconsin State Dental Society at the Schroeder Hotel. A bit of grit with meals of good tough food would help to wear high, interfering teeth points down and true the teeth up, keeping the teeth and the individual in better health, he said.

Loose Ends

By BRUCE HUTCHISON

VANCOUVER AND HOLLYWOOD

WHENEVER I GET OFF the boat in Vancouver in the early morning, with a great homesickness in my heart, as if I had landed in Archangel or Aklavik, I stagger wearily along Hastings Street and slump into a loathsome dive for breakfast. And at breakfast I always used to read O. O. McIntyre's column on New York in the morning paper, but alas, O. O. is dead and they have put in his place one of those gossip writers from Hollywood. It is the final touch of gloom in a Vancouver morning and I don't think I shall be able to stand the place much longer.

Well, I should think the Hollywood gossip writers make their money easier and give less in return for it than any producers in the world. I think I could sit in Hollywood and never leave my house and fill a column every day with the same sort of information that commands a tremendous price in the journalistic markets.

So far as I can remember, the striking facts contained in the morning paper under the signature of one Jimmy Fidler were as follows: Hollywood Idols: Clark Gable has never been the father of quintuplets. . . . Claudette Colbert always wears a bathing suit when in swimming. . . . James Cagney never broke his left arm but is an enthusiastic grower of rhododendrons. . . . Ronald Colman's polo pony was bred in America. . . . Spencer Tracy's new trousers have two legs. . . . Ginger Rogers likes ice cream sodas—just a big girl at heart. . . . Gary Cooper likes to sneak up on his guests and push them into his purple-tiled swimming pool—just a big boy at heart. . . . Carey Grant is quite fond of his children and has taken to calling them by their first names—quaint lad—just a big boy at heart. . . . Carol Lombard doesn't eat sauerkraut. . . . If you see Henry Fonda and Tyrone Power together at a luncheon table these days you'll probably find them eating. . . . No, there's never a dull moment in Hollywood. . . .

NOTE FOR TOURISTS

VANCOUVER IS GETTING so large now that a man could almost set up writing gossip about it, like the tid-bits from Hollywood and New York. For example, here is a bit I picked up on Granville Street near Georgia the other afternoon about tea time which any gossip writer in New York or London would gobble up with gusto.

Two well-dressed men of middle age, evidently Americans, were walking towards the Vancouver Hotel and, after some thought, one of them said: "Well, I tell you, there's one thing I don't like in Vancouver after 6 o'clock at night. The only thing you can do in this town is go out and get drunk. There's nothing else to do."

"Yes," said the other, "I guess that's what we'll have to do."

He said it wearily, as if it were a great labor which he would like to avoid. Life is hard in Vancouver.

OLYMPUS

YET I CONTINUALLY come back to the fact that Vancouver is the most magnificent city in the world in its natural setting. Beside this gigantic spectacle, Victoria is only a pretty primrose garden, a lace doiley, a quaint pin cushion. The other night my friend, Percy, drove me up to the new subdivision which British capitalists have carved out of the side of the North Shore mountains and obviously there is no other such residential area in existence anywhere.

There are miles and miles of paved roads through the rank native forest and between the trees you see the whole of Vancouver and the Fraser River and the Gulf of Georgia laid out precisely like a map; and then, at dusk the street lights suddenly begin to blink on, marching steadily across the city in moving straight lines until they lie, rounded like a newly-seeded field.

And they have built a golf links up there on the mountain with a snow-capped peak back of it that would almost make golf a respectable occupation for an honest man, and a clubhouse of stone and thick cedar shakes that seems to have merged English and French and B.C. Indian architecture into a new art form.

And Percy, who fancies himself as an authority on construction, struck the walls hard with his cane and shouted in my ear: "Look at those walls! Look at the thickness of them! Why, you can lean against 'em when you're drunk." He struck the walls again and leaned against them. "After all," he said, "that is the proper test of a wall."

One of these days, I suppose, a privileged class of aristocrats will live in this lovely wilderness looking down on the sweltering, toiling city that supports them, as the gods must have looked down from Olympus on the mortals in olden times. It is fit up here only for gods, but unfortunately men who have enough money to live up here may not be godlike. They are more likely to tip the scales at something over 200 and they'll walk along these glorious fairways close to the sky looking down on the sweep of sea and island and I dare say they'll be talking about the stock market and the danger of revolution.

A POLITICAL RELAPSE

New York World-Telegram

We have had a feeling all along, since the sudden and alarming business relapse set in, that the cause was essentially political, not economic; that a fear engendered by what Washington was doing was paralyzing the industry of the nation; that Mr. Roosevelt, through what appeared to be a last-ditch attitude toward business, was contributing more than he himself realized to that fear, and that so long as the do-or-die technique continued the situation was bound to get worse.

Accordingly, we believe this present evidence on the part of the President that maybe the other side has some merit, too—that all are not immoral just because they disagree—is a real sign of spring, the first robin, so to speak, and that after the winter of our discontent, the economic sap may actually begin to flow.

A Santa Claus In Newspaperdom

Editorial Correspondence TORONTO.

THE $1,500,000, six-story, chromium, glass and Italian marble palace to house the Globe and Mail has just received its finishing touches. Managing Editor George Smith takes you over to see it.

Boy-publisher C. George McCullagh greets you in the glistening lobby. He is geniality personified, with the optimism, confidence and enthusiasm of a college sophomore. You gasp something about the magnificence of the interior and ask how all this is possible. He replies:

"Well, all you have to do is to find a kindly old prospector who has struck it rich and merit his trust."

The kindly old prospector in this instance is William H. Wright, discoverer of the Wright-Hargreaves gold mine in northern Ontario, which has made fortunes for many Torontonians as well as 10 to 15 million for Mr. Wright. Although he was a millionaire at the time, he served as a private with the Canadians in France during the Great War. Now he lives in a little house on the outskirts of Barrie, eats in the kitchen and receives visitors in his shirt sleeves. Mr. McCullagh has handled his investments so capably that Mr. Wright gave him the money with which to buy the Toronto Globe, known to generations of Canadians as the Liberal Bible, and the Mail and Empire, the daily guide of those of Conservative faith. Mr. McCullagh synthesized the two into the Globe and Mail and built this publishing house. Mr. Wright's services in bringing all this about are publicly recognized by the words "William H. Wright Building" cut into the polished stone on the King Street front. Upstairs an apartment has been fitted up to be his city home during his infrequent visits to Toronto.

MR. McCULLAGH calls the members of his staff by their first names; they invariably address him as "Chief." He takes particular pride in showing his own office, a sixth-floor corner, with walls of the new translucent, but not transparent, glass blocks. The furnishings can only be described as the answer to an interior decorator's most fervent prayer. He apologizes that his office restaurant is not quite ready to serve meals, but invites you to have lunch with him next time you're in Toronto. This restaurant will seat 130 and will be operated 24 hours a day to accommodate the staffs of the various departments of the newspaper.

To make the Globe and Mail the New York Times of Canada is Mr. McCullagh's ambition. When he took over he set out to compete with the journalistic circuses provided Torontonians by the two evening papers. Now he has turned the other way. He has discarded most of the jazzy features, including Walter Winchell. Even the United Press is in place is presented the complete news service of the New York Times with its outstanding informative foreign cables. Whether, with his financial and personal ambitions, he can develop a New York Times objectively in the presentation of local and other Canadian news, is another matter. Probably he will come around to that when he is a little older. Torontonians with whom you talk think he is now on the right track. There is a widespread demand here as in the United States for a quality paper. He believes it will prove to be a profitable venture and looks hopefully to records of the two evening papers which in good times have turned in net profits of more than $1,000,000 a year.

THE CUSTOMARY order is reversed in the location of the Globe and Mail business offices. They are on the top floor. Below them are the editorial and news floor, the engraving and photographic departments, and composing and stereotyping. Circulation occupies the second floor, with presses, of course, on the ground floor back of the entrance lobby. More than $500,000 of new machinery has been installed, which is in addition to the equipment brought over from the old Globe and the Mail and Empire plants. One new machine that automatically wraps and addresses papers alone cost $28,000.

You don't need to be told there is nothing finer in the way of newspaper plants in Canada. An executive tells you that although the New York Times may have more, it has nothing better. But, he adds with a smile, "Of course, the New York Times had no Santa Claus and their people had to be sure that each improvement would pay for itself from the moment it was made."

IN CONTRAST WITH the magnificence of the new, the historic Globe office stands deserted but beginning to crumble on Melinda Street, doubtlessly

Intelligence Chemistry Latest Science

The chemistry of intelligence, a new science which throws light on the cause of feeble-mindedness and may lead to ways of correcting it, is proposed by Dr. Neil A. Dayton, of the Massachusetts State Department of Mental Hygiene.

Discovery that tall children of average weight have a higher intelligence, on the average, than short, underweight children, led Dr. Dayton to suggest the need for studying this new field of science.

Greater intelligence is found to go with greater than average height, whether the child is normal, mentally retarded or feeble-minded. This indicates that the basic body chemistry behind growth in height and weight is in some way linked—with intelligence. Study of this chemistry of intelligence may lead to ways of correcting the disturbance responsible for the mental defect, as other studies of body chemistry have led to ways of improving the nutritional state of children.

The findings do not mean, Dr. Dayton pointed out, that tall adults are necessarily any more intelligent than short ones, because the findings were made on children who were still growing.

Main prize money will go to the entries in the illuminated car section. The first will receive $50, second $40, third $30, fourth $20 and the fifth $10.

Prizes of $6, $4, $3, and $2 will be awarded to the four best decorated bicycle entries ridden by children or adults in costume.

Entries for the various classes must be made with Alderman W. H. Davies, 1008 Broad Street by 12.30 next Saturday.

The pipe band of the Canadian Scottish Regiment will lead off the procession which will include a section of 250 young people from the various schools bearing fiery red torches. The Victoria Motorcycle Club will ride their decorated bikes and act as marshals.

At the conclusion of the parade a huge bonfire will be lighted at some point in the park, possibly on the Horseshoe Bay waterfront, where community singing will be enjoyed. A band concert in the park will be given by the Canadian Legion band.

Arrangements for the spectacular school children's pageant in the morning, at the Athletic Park, are nearing completion.

War Jumps Cost of Hay Fever Remedy

The war in China has affected indirectly a good many people in other parts of the world. Latest to join the ranks are the hay fever sufferers.

A Victoria man who felt the first premonitory sniffle coming on this morning went to a drug-store for his yearly supply of ephedrine tablets.

"The price is doubled this year," the druggist remarked. "It's the war in China," he amplified. "Ephedrine is a Chinese drug, you know."

Two Missionaries Missing in China

PEIPING (CP-Havas)—A telegram from the British Baptist mission at the Shansi capital of Taiyuan Sunday announced Dr. H. C. Wyatt and a Miss Glasby, British missionaries, were seriously wounded, missing and believed dead.

They had been traveling between Taiyuan and Taichow, 100 miles north of the Shansi capital. Nothing had been heard from them since they were wounded, the telegram said.

British-Israel Head Says
Orthodox Ministries Only
Should Have Permits

On a nation-wide tour, Rev. F. J. Springett, Dominion Commissioner of the Canadian British-Israel World Federation, reached Victoria Sunday to conduct two meetings.

In course of an interview Rev. Springett commented on the proposal to review the rights of clergy to marry people.

"In my opinion," he said, "only those ministers who belong to a properly recognized orthodox Christian denomination should be allowed to perform marriage ceremonies. There are ministries cropping up everywhere that have no orthodox religion."

Mr. Springett has been for the past week visiting British-Israel branches in Port Alberni, Courtenay, Nanaimo, Qualicum and Duncan. He will conduct mass meetings this evening and tomorrow evening in the First Baptist Church prior to leaving for Detroit, where he will be guest speaker at the Anglo-Saxon Federation, a sister organization of the British-Israelites, in the United States. On his way east, Mr. Springett will visit Calgary, Edmonton, Regina and Winnipeg, where he will conduct similar services to those being held here. He is staying at the Strathcona Hotel.

"The British-Israel movement thinks that Canada is in danger of subversive and diverse forces and the only solution for the economic trouble is to get back to what we call the Divine Economic System," Mr. Springett said.

"We are making great strides in Canada," he said, "and each branch from Cape Breton to Vancouver Island, is combating particularly, the subversive propaganda which is spreading throughout the Dominion. We are not, however, setting up a new sect."

With reference to further development of the movement on Vancouver Island, Mr. Springett said that this would be discussed at the British Columbia Provincial Conference to be held in Vancouver at the end of the month. "Good progress is being made on the island," he said.

New Directory Is Published

Statistics contained in the latest directory of Canadian publications, published annually by A. McKim Limited, Advertising Agency, show how the press of Canada has kept pace with the growth of the country.

Just issued, the 1938 edition of this handbook—the 31st of the series—presents in concise form the most up-to-date data on every periodical published in Canada. Because of its contents, newspaper advertisers will find McKim's directory an invaluable aid to the factual study of media. In addition to essential information about publications, it contains market data about the particular cities and towns where publications are located.

Beneath all this statistical surface, there exists a living, growing substratum, still more significant to the advertiser. The character of each publication, its purposes and policies, the nature and degree of its reader interest, the subtle differences, intangible but real, which in the individual are called "personality"—these often transcend the details of circulation, age, deadline and typography. The men behind the publications, their individuality and ideals, their stature and substance, are also part of the picture. All these things lie below the visible skin of a publication. They are the heart, lungs, life blood of a periodical, and they determine its precise suitability for the task it must perform for an advertiser.

Inquiries concerning the directory should be addressed to any of the six McKim Advertising Agency offices, at Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg, Vancouver, Halifax and London, England.

C.G.I.T. Hosts To Mothers At Supper

The First United C.G.I.T. held its annual Mother and Daughter banquet in the Sunday school hall on Friday evening, with nearly 200 mothers, girls and guests seated about the six beautifully decorated tables.

Miss Lauretta McCall, C.G.I.T. leader, gave the welcoming address and introduced the special guests, including Mrs. Nellie McClung, the guest speaker; Mrs. Winstrom, Prof. and Mrs. E. S. Farr, Mrs. R. W. Mayhew, Mr. Nell Perry, Mrs. A. S. Christie, Mr. and Mrs. G. Peaker, Mr. R. N. Higgins, Miss Kay Gillis, Mr. E. Jones, Miss Mary Louden, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Fyfe, Miss Beveridge, Mrs. Harris and Annie McLean, the C.G.I.T. president.

Miss McCall explained that the theme in which the tables were decorated was "Seeing God in the Beautiful." The groups had chosen to represent beauty in land and sea, and art. One table, showing the humorous side of the subject, represented the old woman who lived in the shoe.

A lively sing-song was led by Miss Charlotte Crawford. Peggy Pepper proposed a toast to the mothers, which was replied to by Mrs. E. S. Farr, and a toast to the church was proposed by Inez Jeune and replied to by Nell Perry. Mrs. R. W. Mayhew presented two large boxes of chocolates as prizes for the best decorated tables to Miss Marjorie Brown's group, whose theme was "Music," and Miss Jean Munro's group, whose theme was "Beauty in the Sea."

Mrs. W. H. Wilson, accompanied by Mr. G. Peaker, rendered two delightful solos. Mrs. McClung gave an inspiring address on "Mother and Daughter Relationships," which was much enjoyed. Miss McCall expressed thanks to all those who had assisted in the preparation of the banquet.

Several C.G.I.T. girls, led by Miss Jean Wilson, took part in the short vesper service which brought out the thought of a Christian personality. This was conducted around an imitation camp fire, while overhead hung a large silver star with the word "Mother" lettered on it. Taps brought the pleasant evening to a close.

Dutch Treat To Aid Milk Fund

Novel invitations, in the form of clogs, have been issued by the Dr. O. M. Jones Chapter, I.O.D.E., to members and friends to a Dutch treat tea and bridge to be held on Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 5.30 in the nurses' home of the Jubilee Hospital. The proceeds from the party will be in aid of the chapter's milk fund, which helps to supply milk daily to undernourished school children.

The committee and members of the chapter, dressed in Dutch caps and aprons, will receive and assist in serving refreshments, and the flower decorations will feature mostly the flowers from Holland, including tulips in lovely shades.

An invitation is extended to the public to help in the distribution of the milk to the school children by attending the tea.

Aged Women Are Taken For Drives

Residents of the Aged Ladies' Home were taken for a drive on Friday evening. The procession of cars was led by Wm. Inglis, and went via Vancouver Street, Rockland Avenue, through Government House Gardens, Newport Avenue, to Beach Drive and around to Cadboro Bay, where the ladies enjoyed a halt at the "Mystic Spring," several taking a walk over the bridge and making a wish. The legend of the spring was given by Mr. Inglis. McDonald, 121 Government Street, and Mr. Henry Herbert Luney, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Luney, 630 Foul Bay Road, which took place in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church on Saturday evening. The guest pews were marked with Colonial bouquets of forget-me-nots, and thrift, tied with white satin streamers.

Mr. Jesse Longfield presided at the organ, and as the register was being signed, Miss Isabelle Crawford sang "O Promise Me." Captain McDonald gave his daughter away, and she looked lovely in a frock of Ivory Duchess satin, princess style, with a lobe of lace and long pointed sleeves, the high lace collar and narrow belt being fastened with diamante clasps. Her long embroidered veil was held in place with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower bouquet of Tullaghan roses, lilies of the valley and white heather.

THE ATTENDANTS

The bride's sister, Mrs. M. F. Hunter, was matron of honor, in an attractive frock of Alice blue accordion-pleated chiffon, with a bolero trimmed with matching velvet ribbon. Her blue picture hat was trimmed with French flowers and velvet streamers in a darker shade, and she carried an arm bouquet of pink roses and sweet peas.

The bridesmaids wore bolero frocks of chiffon with diamante ornaments and matching accordion-pleated halos with ribbon bows and long streamers at the back. Miss Evelyn Lindsay-Dixon was in pink and Miss Eugenie Doherty in green, and they carried posies of roses and lilies.

The bride's little niece, Gloria Longfield, the flower-girl, was in a Kate Greenaway frock of yellow net over tulle, trimmed with violets and velvet ribbon in the same shade, and a poke bonnet similarly trimmed. She carried a Colonial posy of violets and forget-me-nots.

Mr. Arthur Luney supported his brother, and the ushers were Messrs. M. F. Hunter, Bob McKean and Ken Tyrell.

A profusion of lovely flowers, with lilac and Calla lilies predominating, was arranged in the home of the bridegroom's parents for the reception which followed the service, during which the bride couple stood before the flower-banked fireplace in the drawing-room. Mrs. McDonald wore a becoming gown of periwinkle blue nylon with a lace bolero with a diamante, a black flower-trimmed hat and veil, and a corsage bouquet of pale pink carnations and sweet peas. Mrs. Luney was gowned in turquoise blue chiffon with matching accessories, and wore a black French flower turban, and a corsage bouquet of Tullaghan roses and forget-me-nots.

The bride's table was arranged with white tapers in tall silver candelabra, the three-tier wedding cake being flanked by silver vases of lilies of the valley. Hon. John Hart proposed the toast to the bride.

On their return they will reside in their new home on Hampshire Road.

Club Women Battle Over Election

Bedlam Reigns At U.S. Convention In Kansas City

KANSAS CITY (AP)—United States club women leaders went in for "swinging" and play Saturday as a climax to nearly a week of listening to speechmaking. The "swinging" was the politics of Women's Clubs coming out from under wraps. Until then they had been tempered by a "ladies' agreement."

To a swing-version of "Maryland, My Maryland," marched backers of Mrs. John L. Whitehurst of Baltimore for first vice-president, but Mrs. Walter W. Seymour of Chicago, Mrs. Whitehurst's rival, asked her supporters not to parade.

Lack of Wind Hampered Auxiliary Sailers Negotiating Hein Bank Course

First of a three-race series for the Virtue Cup by large auxiliary cruisers was sailed Sunday by West Wind, Minena, Richmond II and Chiria from the Royal Victoria Yacht Club moorings at Cadboro Bay to Hein Bank and return.

The race was sailed over a 25-mile course with a time limit of 10 hours. The yachts crossing the starting line at 10:30 yesterday morning under a light north wind, were the ketch Chiria, Capt. R. S. Johnson; yawl Minena, Harry T. Barnes; cutter Richmond II, F. C. Holden, and ketch West Wind, T. G. Denny.

Minena and Richmond II got away together, closely followed by West Wind and Chiria. On the long run out to Hein buoy Richmond II took the lead.

The wind failed and the competing ships were forced to anchor to save them from being carried off their course by the strong tide, a delay of one hour being suffered when the breeze again sprang up.

West Wind was first to round the Hein buoy but Minena overtook her on the homeward run and crossed the finishing line at Cadboro Bay at 8, her time being 8:10.02.

The wind then failed completely and it took Richmond II another hour to finish, her time being 9:46.28. Chiria and West Wind were becalmed and returned to Cadboro Bay under power about midnight.

STARS AND DINGHIES

Star-class boats and dinghies inaugurated the 1938 sailing season Saturday afternoon when the keenly-contested races were followed with close interest from the Cadboro Bay club by a large gallery of spectators.

The stars sailed a course from Cadboro Bay to Jimmy Chicken Island and back to Willows Beach.

The boats were scheduled to round the course twice, but with a falling breeze the race was called after the first circuit.

Walter Blandy's Boykin, Tom Halkett's Ripples, and I. C. Bartlett's Aura were overlapping at the starting line.

A Packford's Aquila followed astern.

Dinghies finished in the following order: Onoway 1:20.0, Tern 1:14.85, Tahiti 1:12.00, Penguin 1:13.17, Bandoot 1:14.05, Aquila 4:08.07.

In the event for snipes, O. Griffin sailed a good race, starting behind but coming in ahead of his only competitor, W. Jeune.

CORINTHIANS BEAT CALGARY

Score 3 to 0 Victory in Clever Soccer Exhibition in Alberta City

CALGARY—All-stars of Calgary lost to the Islington Corinthians, world-touring footballers, 3 to 0, here Saturday night. At half time the score was 2 to 0.

The tourists, after the all-stars had pressed in the early stages of the game, played a brilliant attacking match to set up a two-nothing lead, swarming over Calgary territory and adding another goal shortly before time.

J. Brathwaite, playing inside right for the English amateurs, opened the scoring 25 minutes after the start and finished it with but a few minutes to go in the second half. The in-between tally came from Johnny Sherwood, who on a fast pass from W. Miller beat out Ronnie McKenzie, captain and goalie for Calgary.

The all-stars with the veteran Sammy Blair, Eric Moorehouse, Billy Law and Jimmy Barrie, assisted by the stellar work of McKenzie, put up a creditable showing, but were more than out-guessed by the wizardry of Ted Wingfield, the English goalie.

The tourists left for Lethbridge yesterday and were scheduled to play in the southern city tonight.

The lineups: Corinthians—E. Wingfield, R. Manning, A. D. Buchanan; G. Dance, E. Martin, L. Bradbury, H. Read, J. Brathwaite, R. Sherwood, W. Miller and J. Miller.

Calgary—R. McKenzie, W. Law, W. Stuppard, V. Welsner, W. Yoxall, D. Tucker, J. H. West, A. Law, E. Moorehouse, S. Blair and J. Barrie.

Referee—J. Armstrong.

New Air Service To Link Victoria

Four-passenger Waco Plane Will Operate on Daily Schedule to Vancouver

A new air service between Victoria and Vancouver will be started tomorrow with a four-passenger Waco plane scheduled to arrive here this afternoon. It was announced today by Walter Miles, representing the operating company.

The double daily schedule commencing tomorrow, Mr. Miles states, will be as follows: Leave Esquimalt airport 9 a.m., arrive Vancouver 9:30 a.m.; leave Vancouver 9:45 a.m., arrive Victoria 10:15 a.m.; leave Esquimalt 5:30 p.m., arrive Vancouver 6 p.m.; leave Vancouver 6:30 p.m., arrive Victoria 7 p.m.

This plane will be shortly followed by a Boeing flying-boat to supplement the service, and will be used out of this port by Mr. Dyson for his own business and also as a standby for extra service.

Associated with Mr. Dyson is Terence Finney, who will be chief pilot. Mr. Finney is a pilot of considerable experience and has been very active in flying over the entire coastal waters of British Columbia and is instructor for the Aero Club of Victoria and instructor in practical flying for the pupils taking the correspondence course in aeronautics under the Department of Education.

Both Mr. Dyson and Mr. Finney have been associated with flying for the last 15 years.

"It has been our desire for some considerable time to give Victoria that much-needed air connection with the mainland and put this city back on the air map of the continent, to which it so rightly belongs, and we can assure the public of Victoria and the island that we shall endeavor at all times to provide safe and adequate service, our planes being fully covered by all necessary requirements under the regulations required by the federal government. We only hope the citizens of the island and of this city in particular will give us their full support to make this enterprise as successful as possible."

Booking arrangements and reservations have been made with Walter S. Miles and Wilfred McGregor, general agents for North-West Airlines.

Strange Islands of the British Empire

I—THE SEYCHELLES

Think of men finding scores of islands with fine rich soil but not a single person living on them! That is what happened in the case of the Seychelles. They first were seen back in the year 1502, by the Portuguese, who did not do anything with them, except mark them on a chart. Then they were visited by an English ship, and still later by a French ship. The French visit led to lasting settlements, and the islands were named in honor of a high officer in the French government.

A cocodemer palm with huge nuts.

The Seychelles are in the Indian Ocean, about 600 miles north of Madagascar. The 101 islands in the group have an area of 156 square miles. They have been in the British Empire since 1814, when France made a treaty which turned them over to Great Britain.

No people were found on the islands, but they were teeming with plant and animal life. Palms, banyans, mangroves and other trees were growing almost everywhere. Certain trees had roots which stretched far down along the sides of rocky cliffs. Some of these roots have been measured in modern times, and have been found to be from 80 to 100 feet in length.

Most famous of the trees on these islands is the "coco de mer," still common along the coasts. This is a special kind of coconut palm which produces double-nuts which sometimes have a weight of 35 or 40 pounds.

The coco de mer grows to a height of about 100 feet, and its nuts are the largest produced by any tree. Before the Seychelles islands were settled, people of the Maldives often picked up double-coconuts on the beach. They had dropped in the ocean, and currents had carried them from the Seychelles, more than a thousand miles across the Indian Ocean.

Not knowing where the strange coconuts came from, the Maldivians often picked up double-coconuts on the beach. They had dropped in the ocean, and currents had carried them from the Seychelles, more than a thousand miles across the Indian Ocean.

Rats and bats seem to have been the only furry animals living on the Seychelles when white men came, but there were great numbers of reptiles. The streams were overrun with crocodiles, and lizards and snakes were common. Both on the dry land and around the coasts were turtles, some of them of large size.

Today the Seychelles islands are the home of almost 30,000 people. They are of very mixed descent. Negroes from Africa, and Indians from India have settled there; also Englishmen and Frenchmen. Only about 1,000 of the people are "pure white."

Benefic aspects dominate today, according to astrology, with one of the most promising of planetary influences.

While the mind may be disturbed by changing and uncertain economic conditions this is a time for important decisions and positive activities. There is good luck for initiative which is well planned.

Diplomats come under a direction of the stars which seems to presage changes among American ambassadors and ministers. Honors for a lawyer of distinguished attainments are prognosticated.

Following spring floods drought is prognosticated for many parts of the United States. High winds will prevail late in the season.

Career men in the United States' foreign service may be shifted arbitrarily and underground policies may be apparent as the summer advances. Secret moves are to be obligatory, it is forecast.

Women are subject to benefic planetary influences today and should find much pleasure in hospitalities. Girls may expect halting suitors to gain courage.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of change. Lucky business contracts are indicated for both men and women.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR MISS DIX—I am what is called "a party girl" and while I have plenty of dates not one of them will ever ask me to marry him. Now I have a married man in love with me. His wife is getting old. She is narrow-minded and jealous and it is a great strain on him pretending to care for her. But he feels that because she was so devoted and worked so hard for him during their first years to help him get started that he should not desert her now. I will soon be 30 and I realize I haven't much time left to feather my nest. This man has money and I believe he would marry me if I could get him to divorce her. He has given her the best years of his life. Their children are almost grown and will soon be out of the way, and I think it is very selfish of her to hold on to him. He says I make him feel young and full of life. I am thinking seriously of going to the wife without his knowing it and telling her the truth. It is high time that he stop sacrificing his life on the altar of duty.

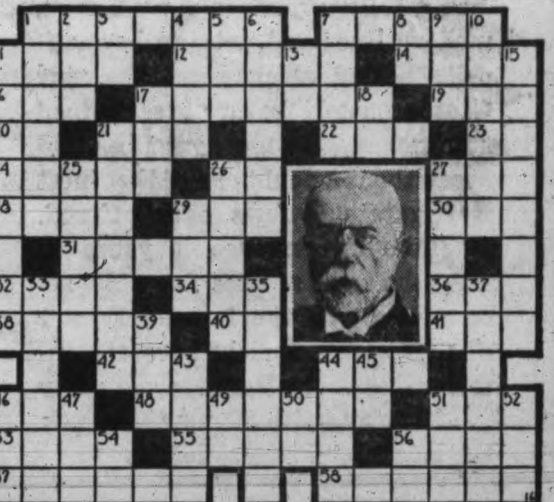

Answer: Don't shed any tears over his sacrificing himself on the altar of duty. He is hiding behind his wife's skirts. He doesn't want to marry a "party girl" any more than any of the other men and he has the grand and perfect alibi in his wife. When a man is really in love with a younger woman and wants to marry her, he isn't so considerate of his wife's feelings. It is only when he is amusing himself with a Lady Love that he begins talking about his duty and standing by the woman who has stood by him through all the hardships of their early marriage. Very few of the playboy husbands want to divorce their wives. Friend Wife is too much of a protection.

DEAR MISS DIX—Why do men prefer slim women to plump ones? My husband fusses at me if I gain a pound. I don't want to be fat, but I feel that if he really loved me he would like me the way I am.

Answer: Living skeletons seem to be the fashion. Maybe that is the reason husbands prefer 'em. But nobody can guess a man's taste.

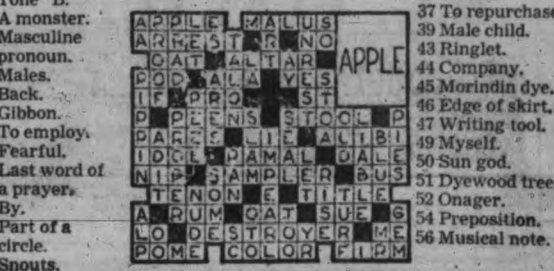

pleasure-loving. Subjects of this sign usually make many friends. They have unusual potentialities. Dr. Edward Jenner, who introduced vaccination, was born on this day 1749. Others who have celebrated it as a birthday include Alfonso XIII, former King of Spain, 1886; Amos Eaton, noted botanist, 1776.

DEAN PARK INSPECTED

Development Work on Mount Newton Tract Draws High Praise

Representatives of Victoria public bodies joined with those of Sidney and Saanich Saturday in an inspection of the new John Dean Park, atop Mount Newton, and were rewarded with a remarkable view of the Gulf of Georgia and surrounding terrain.

F. J. Baker, president of the North Saanich and Sidney Island Provincial Parks Board, who with the Saanich Pioneers' Association, Sidney Business Men's Association, the North Saanich Service Club and Sidney Boy Scout and Girl Guides arranged the outing, explained the purpose of the event.

It had been held to bring to the public's attention the work which had already been done in making the attractive tract accessible. He drew to the attention of the visitors the great possibilities of the park and paid tribute to the work of the unemployed young men who, working in the forestry camp there, had constructed the roadway and opened up trails.

Plans called for the construction of a miniature lake near the summit, he explained.

DONOR SPEAKS

His pleasure in the development already carried on and that proposed was voiced by John Dean, donor of the park. In the deed from himself to the province, he had stipulated no dogwood should be cut and no tree over eight inches in diameter removed, he noted.

He hoped to see many more picnics in the area and voiced thanks for the work that had been carried on to date.

Refreshments were provided for visitors, whose numbers included: Aldermen B. J. Gadsden, Archie Wills, James Adam and W. Lloyd Morgan, the last named representing the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau; J. G. White, and J. M. Malcolm, members of the Saanich Pioneers' Association; Councillor L. C. Hagan, representing the Saanich Council; T. J. Goodlake, president of the Rotary Club; C. L. Harrison, representing the Alpine Club; Mrs. Hugh Mackenzie, president of the Society for the Preservation of the Native Plants of British Columbia; T. A. Rickard, president of the British Columbia Historical Society, and Mrs. Arthur Cree, secretary; W. O. Wallace, president of the Saanich Board of Trade, and General R. J. Gwynne.

Oriental Stand Is Supported

Congratulations to A. W. Neill, M.P., and Thomas Reid, M.P., for their stand in opposing Oriental immigration and criticism of the suggestion of Professor H. F. Angus, a member of the Rowell Commission, that Orientals be enfranchised, were contained in telegrams dispatched to Ottawa by the Victoria Post No. 1, Native Sons of British Columbia.

In the wire regarding Prof. Angus' opinion the Native Sons said they had learned of his expression with surprise, alarm and sincere regret. They indicated they would oppose any move to enfranchise Chinese.

Langford and Colwood A.Y.P.A. will meet Tuesday evening at 8 in the Legion Hall.

A popular exhibit at the Franklin Institute in Philadelphia is equipment enabling visitors to hear themselves as they sound over the telephone.

Dauber Is Best Mud Splasher

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

STEADY hands rushed from the bull-pen long have played important roles with winning baseball clubs.

But never before have relief workers made themselves any more valuable in the majors than they are right now.

The National League scramble may well turn out to be a battle of relief pitchers.

The New York Giants, Chicago Cubs, and Pittsburgh Pirates have made it plain that they intend to stick to the finish. They lead the parade in the old wheel, thanks to relief pitching that has been superior to that of the other outfits. Dick Coffman already has pulled four games out of the fire for the Giants, saving a game for the great Carl Hubbell, among others.

Jack Russell has hurried from the bull-pen to crack his curve in four contests for the Cubs. He was the winner of two of them.

Mace Brown has been called in a half dozen times by the Pirates, and holds two decisions over the Cubs and one over the St. Louis Cardinals. Good relief pitching is a prime requisite to even such powerhouse juggernauts as the New York Yankees of the 1927 era, who had Wilky Moore and his sinker. The Ruppert Rifles now have Johnny Murphy.

Clint Brown got in seven of the first 11 games played by the Chicago White Sox, and picked up one of them himself with a two-base hit. Otis Crandall years ago made a big reputation for himself in finishing games for the Giants. He earned the nickname "Doc," by so neatly doctoring up so many contests. Art Fromme was another old and superlative Polo Ground reliever.

A relief pitcher has to have control the minute he steps into the box. He has to warm up in a hurry, and be at his best from the beginning. Sometimes relief men enter a game with the bases clogged up and a couple of balls on the batter. They must deliver at once. They can't fool around. The best relief pitchers are those who have a real curve or some variant, Dolph Luque, for instance, with his sharp-breaking and low curve, and Hi Bell and Hal Haid. Luque was invaluable in the last playing year—with the world champion Giants of 1933.

Some fast ball pitchers make good relief artists. Connie Mack employed Bob Grove to advantage in the role late in 1929, but the curve ballers are better fitted for the job. They make batters hit into the dirt—set up double plays.

A relief pitcher has to pitch to every batter's spot in going down the line in the late innings. Every ball he pitches means something. Few of them are wasted.

A relief pitcher has to be well equipped physically, for to be ready he must spend considerable time in the bull-pen. He must be patient, for there isn't much kick in warming up for no reason at all, which is the case when the pitcher in trouble gets out of the jam himself.

A relief worker must be able to throw to bases.

Many thought Oscar Vitt made a mistake in sending young Bill Zuber into the box for his first big league appearance in the 11th of that 13-inning thriller between Washington and Cleveland.

Zuber pitched well enough, but the pressure on him probably had something to do with his wide throw to third base, which set up the winning run for the Nationals.

It was a spot for one of the older heads. A relief worker must have cold steel nerves, and the steadiness which comes only with experience.

Favorite Romps Home By Seven Lengths in Preakness; Cravat Second

BALTIMORE (AP)—Dauber, the horse that didn't start running in the Kentucky Derby until it was too late, found the shorter distance of the 48th Preakness at Pimlico's rain-soaked course made to his order Saturday and romped to an impressive victory.

Flying silks of William Du Pont Jr.'s Foxcatcher Farm, the chestnut son of Pennant-Ship o'War, second in the derby, lived up to his reputation as a great mudder. He went to the post the 3 to 2 choice of the rain-soaked and chilled crowd of 25,000.

Under guidance of Maurice (Moose) Peters, the Foxcatcher ace tossed sloop and mud in the faces of eight worthy rivals, finishing the 13-16 mile of the United States turf's richest race for three-year-olds with seven lengths to spare over Townsend B. Martin's Cravat, a rank outsider. Hal Price Headley's Menow, the early pace setter as he was in the derby, was third.

Backers of Dauber received $5 for each $2 invested in a winning mutual ticket and Du Pont pocketed $51,875 on the gross gate of $69,500. The victory ran the colt's earnings for the year to $69,175.

MAKES GOOD TIME

Despite the sloppy track, Dauber stepped the distance in 1:59.4-5, only three seconds slower than the track record hung up by Pompoon in winning the Dixie handicap Wednesday. He stamped himself as the horse to beat in the 1 1/4 mile Belmont Stakes June 4.

Once again Fighting Fox and Bull Lea disappointed. They were not as heavily backed as in the derby, but the Fox was the luke-warm second choice. Again he quit after laying close to the pace for six furlongs and finished seventh, a notch back of Bull Lea, which never seriously threatened.

Myron Selznick's little Can't Wait, third in the derby, again closed fast, but had to be content with fourth money, five lengths back of Menow. Sun Egret, A. C. Compton's mud-running colt, was fifth. Hypocrite and Bull Whip brought up the rear back of the Fox and Bull Lea.

Peters had Dauber away from the barrier faster than usual, but he still had only one horse beaten as the field splashed past the stands the first time with Menow blazing the trail, 1 1/4 length in front of Fighting Fox.

But swinging into the backstretch, Dauber began to pick up his rivals. But he was in third place and moving up fast on the outside. At the three-quarter mark Peters shot Dauber into second place, only a neck back of Menow. Sonny Workman tried to hold Menow together, but there was no denying Dauber.

Cravat, paying $35.20 to place, charged up fast in the last 16th to nip Menow in the final strides. That nose meant a difference of $5,000, for $10,000 went to the second-place horse and $5,000 to the third.

Edmonton Grads Retain Trophy

Noel MacDonald Brilliant As Team Takes Third Straight From Chicago Cagers

EDMONTON — Victors over Chicago all-stars in three straight games, Edmonton Grads tucked the Underwood Women's International Basketball trophy back in their cup chest today to await the next challenge from a United States team. They will meet Cleveland Fisher Foods here, starting May 24.

Grads came from behind with a fourth quarter rally to defeat a team hand-picked from three Chicago quintets 40 to 31 Saturday night and thrill 3,500 fans as they completed a route started with successive 40 to 33 and 42 to 26 victories in the first two games of the best-of-five series.

Noel MacDonald, Grads great center star, scored 25 points to lead Percy Page's machine. Largely through her offensive work Grads kept in the battle for the first three quarters. In the last 10 minutes she scored 11 of Grads' 13 points that brought victory after the Edmonton team faced a 28 to 27 deficit at three-quarter time.

Alexander Wins Quoits Tourney

T. Alexander carried off the honors in the weekly handicap tournament played at the Victoria Quoting Club grounds Saturday afternoon by defeating J. McMillan, 21 to 16, in the final game of the series.

In other matches McMillan won from D. McCall, 21 to 6, and Alexander eliminated S. Watt, 21 to 18. A doubles game will be played next Saturday, starting at 1.45. Alexander and Watt will oppose McCall and McMillan.

SECOND HALF

John Watt replaced Patterson on the greenshirts' line-up at the resumption of play and the players were shuffled around a bit. There appeared to be more fire in their ranks. Wests opened the scoring in this session when George Barnes fired a ball that got away from Goale Chalmers, into a vacant net, but some time later the dockers also placed the ball between the sticks. This play was: Sage, Wests' fullback, missed in trying to kick clear a long shot and Barneswell dashed past him and captured it and while on the run fired for the goal. The leather crashed into the upright and rebounded right into the still charging Barneswell and into the goal.

This gave Esquimalt a 3 to 1 lead, and for the next 15 minutes or so their attacks kept coming frequently and were plenty dangerous, but Goale Tommy Restell and his fullbacks proved capable managers in the squeeze. The Wests responded at the other end, but did not really hit their stride until 35 minutes of the half had passed.

At this point the Wests were awarded a free kick against Bell for fouling. Sage took the kick and after the ball had been booted about by a number of players near the Esquimalt goal, Morgan got hold of it and placed it behind the net minder. Three minutes later the score went into a 3 to 3 tie, Barnes scoring on Roy Okell's rebound off the upright. From that point on it was nip-and-tuck for the winning goal, which Morgan got for the Wests

Neck and Neck Now

Charles Kurtsinger, left, and Red Pollard were within an arm's length of each other when the photographer snapped this picture at Belmont Park, but both are planning to be a greater distance apart at the conclusion of the match race between War Admiral and Seabiscuit, May 30. Kurtsinger will ride the Admiral, while Pollard will have the leg up on the Biscuit.

Wests, Liberals And City Victors

Register Wins in First Round of Province Cup Football Series

Saturday's opening round matches in the Province Cup soccer competition saw the Victoria Wests, Victoria City and Esquimalt, Inter-municipal League champions, advance safely. The Wests put on a great second half rally to defeat Esquimalt, 4 to 3, at the Athletic Park; the City outscored the Garrison, 2 to 1, in the second game at the enclosure, and the Liberals eliminated the Saanich Thistles, 4 to 2, at Heywood Avenue.

The Wests were lucky to win. Up to 10 minutes from time the Esquimalt boys had had the better of the exchanges and were enjoying a 3 to 1 lead. But the greenshirts suddenly came to life and turned on the heat in earnest. Within three minutes they had piled in the two goals to even the count and with only 10 seconds of the game left Noel Morgan, inside left, registered the winning counter.

Although the Wests had an edge in the first 10 minutes of play this did not prevent Gordy Bell, the sparkplug who kept the Esquimalt front line working like a million all afternoon, from teeing up a loose ball and ploughing it into the net four minutes from the start. For the remainder of the half the dockers dominated offensive play and again found the hemp at the 16-minute mark, Nip Sage netting on Bell's cross.

John Watt replaced Patterson on the greenshirts' line-up at the resumption of play and the players were shuffled around a bit. There appeared to be more fire in their ranks. Wests opened the scoring in this session when George Barnes fired a ball that got away from Goale Chalmers, into a vacant net, but some time later the dockers also placed the ball between the sticks. Grove Hurls His Sixth Victory

Beats Washington 4 to 3 to Keep Boston at Head of American League

It was a long time coming, but the way things are moving now, it begins to look as though Tom Yawkey has finally hit the jackpot after tossing all those millions into his Boston Red Sox.

Heading westward for their first swing 'round the circuit, the team Yawkey put together by turning over huge wads of cash to Connie Mack and various other ivory dealers, are in first place in the American League and sporting an eight-game winning streak.

For far this spring, everything Yawkey has touched over the last several seasons is turning to gold all at once. Everyone's doing his part in the drive. Five of the regulars are hitting better than .300; the pitchers are clicking.

But you don't have to go far to find the chief factors in the recent successes. They lie in the aging but still agile left arm of Robert Moses Grove, and the long-range cannonading of James Emory Fox, both graduates of the city of Mack (Shibe Park, Philadelphia).

HEADY BASEBALL

Take Lefty, for instance. He was 38 last March. But he's still the greatest southpaw elbow in this generation his produced. He hasn't his speed any more, but he's pitching with his-tuff and his brains, and is the No. 1 American League flinger with an undefeated run of six straight victories. He chalked up No. 6 yesterday by a 4 to 3 margin over Washington Senators, and is well on the road to his most successful campaign since his 31-game winning streak in 1927.

Then there's Fox. What he's doing to American League pitchers this season is a caution. To date, he's hitting a mere .364—is the biggest league's leading home run hitter with eight round-trip wallops. But the most amazing product of his pounding is the fact that he's driven 39 runs over in 23 games, nearly twice as many as anyone else in either league. If he could keep up his present rate, he'd have batted about 260 across by the end of the season. (The major league record is only 190).

All in all, what with the champion New York Yankees, Detroit Tigers and Cleveland Indians showing signs of monkey-wrenches-in-the-machinery, the diamond-studded Sox may wind up as the surprise package of the year.

Empire Youth Rally Attracts Big Crowd

GOV. SPEAKS AT YOUTH RALLY

Addresses Largest Gathering of Young People Ever Assembled in Vancouver

VANCOUVER (CP) — The largest gathering of young people ever to assemble in Vancouver stood in silence at Brockton Point at the entrance to the city's harbor Sunday, and heard Hon. Eric W. Hamber, Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia deliver an address to the Empire Youth Rally.

Mr. Hamber, the personal representative of King George VI, spoke briefly to the throng about unity and co-operation among the different nations of the Empire, and urged on the gathering the need of loyalty and devotion to the King and the Empire.

It was estimated more than 10,000 youths were present, representing all leading youth organizations of the city.

The groups were allotted special places on the grounds, and each section paraded into the Oval in their respective sections. The rally began in the morning with special services in all city churches.

A massed choir of 500 young people, all wearing white surplices, were accompanied by the Kitsilano Boys' Band and a school orchestra, in the singing of several hymns.

The Kitsilano Boys' Band played the first six bars of the National Anthem as the Lieutenant-Governor and his party took their seats in the grandstand. The crowd then joined in the singing of O Canada.

Two Vancouver youths, Miss Edna Hamerton and Wallace Gelaspie, who attended the grand Empire Youth Rally at Albert Hall in London, England, last year, spoke briefly before the Lieutenant-Governor of their experiences at that rally.

REDS SCORE POLO VICTORY

Defeat All-stars 2 to 1; Free Shot Decides Match

Victoria Polo Club teams fought their keenest duel of the season yesterday afternoon on the Foul Bay Road grounds, with the Reds nosing out the All-stars, 2 to 1, in the fifth and final chukker through a fine 40-yard free shot by Don Wilson.

It was the second victory for the Reds in as many weeks.

The teams traveled through the first two chukkers scoreless. In the third session Jack Hazelwood blasted the wooden sphere between the sticks from a difficult angle to give the All-stars the lead. Don Carley notched for the Reds to even the count in the next period. On three occasions in the final chukker the Yellowshirts were penalized for crossing and Wilson sank one of these free shots to give his side the winning tally.

Capt. Rivers Rebbitt, coach of the Victoria Polo Club, refereed. The same teams will meet next Sunday afternoon at 2:45 and on the following week-end a picked squad will contest with Duncan in a two-game series — Sunday and Monday.

The Rainbow Rifle Club held its weekly shoot on Saturday. Scores out of a possible were as follows: A class—H. Brown 88, S. Hawkes 91, R. Ferguson 91, P. Mackenzie 90, C. Bates 95, J. Mason 86; B class—D. Fildew 91, F. Greensmith 90; C class—L. Sheppard 82.

Albert Sullivan, chairman of the Victoria Committee of the National Council of Education, is shown in the lower picture introducing the main speaker of the rally, Dr. Daniel Buchanan of the University of British Columbia. On the platform can also be seen, the six representatives from Greater Victoria who attended the youth services in Albert Hall and Westminster Abbey during the Coronation celebrations. They are: Miss Geraldine Percival, Miss Ellen O'Connell, Miss Aimee O. Heddle, Miss Dorothy Duncan, Miss Elizabeth Angus and Miss Anne Ridewood. Major M. W. Turner, aide-de-camp of Lieutenant-Governor Eric W. Hamber who was unable to attend, is in the foreground.

Youth Rally Marks Movement Founding

Dr. D. Buchanan Addresses Victoria Young People at Rally in Athletic Park

"Train for citizenship and then offer your life in service to your country," said Dr. Daniel Buchanan, dean of the faculty of arts and science at the University of British Columbia, before approximately 2,000 youths who attended the Empire Youth Rally held at the Athletic Park yesterday afternoon.

The subject of his address was, "The Frontiers of Youth."

Dr. Buchanan said that in these times when many difficult problems faced democratic governments there was too much sneering and criticizing of public officials in Canada and the United States. This resulted in the youth losing ambition to take upon their shoulders the responsibility of leading their country.

He said that too many young people considered religion as "an optional subject in the curriculum of life." He did not blame them for this though. Religion must be practical as well as personal. In a few introductory remarks, Albert Sullivan, chairman, Victoria Committee of the National Council of Education, made reference to Stanley Baldwin's address to a gathering of the youth of the Empire in the Royal Albert Hall, London, on May 18, 1937. On this address was based the foundation of the Empire Youth Movement, an organization to be devoted entirely to the youth of today dedicated under Christian influences to high purposes and public service.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE

Mr. Sullivan read a message from His Honor Lieutenant-Governor Hamber, who was unable to attend owing to the fact that he had previously accepted an invitation to speak at the Vancouver Youth Rally. As future men and women of the province, His Honor hoped that the youth would realize the responsibility that would rest on their shoulders. He urged the youth to recognize duty first and self afterwards.

Three of the six young ladies who were representatives from Greater Victoria at the youth services in Albert Hall and Westminster Abbey during the Coronation celebrations, spoke briefly on their experiences. Miss Geraldine Percival, Oak Bay High School, and Miss Ellen O'Connell, Mount View High School, gave the highlights of Mr. Baldwin's address at Albert Hall. Their enthusiasm over the former premier's speech and the magnitude of the rally was clearly evident in their accounts. Miss Aimee O. Heddle, who represented the Victoria High School, described in detail the brilliant and impressive service in Westminster Abbey. Miss Elizabeth Angus, St. Margaret's School; Miss Anne Ridewood, Norfolk House School, and Miss Dorothy Duncan of Duncan were the other three who attended the Coronation, on the platform.

The hymns, "Jerusalem," "The Children's Song" and "Unto the Hills," were sung, accompanied by George H. E. Green and the Victoria Boys Band.

All over the Dominion special services were held in the churches in the morning, while in all larger centres mass meetings of youth, with programs suitable to the day, were held.

LIBERALS WINNERS

Young Liberals and the Thistles put on an interesting match at Heywood Avenue. The clubs battled tooth-and-nail for 90 minutes with no quarter asked. The intermediate champion presented a much smoother attack and took advantage of every scoring opportunity.

The game was only half a minute old when the Thistles opened the scoring, Bob Wallace heading home a cross from Carmichael. The Liberals returned on the attack and minutes later tied the score, Politano grabbing a loose ball and kicking it into the net.

Play swung from end-to-end for the next 10 minutes with both defences being well tested. After 30 minutes the Liberals went ahead, Tutthill lifting the ball into an open net. Horsby having come out to save from Politano.

The second half was only two minutes old when the Thistles made it 2 to 2, DeGiralomo breaking through himself to register. The Liberals soon took command again, Cosier scoring from a penalty given for hands. Near the end of play the Liberals scored their fourth goal, Cosier netting.

Eric Hetherington, members of the Liberals, suffered a badly wrenched leg and had a leave the field. After receiving treatment at the hospital he was taken home. His place on the field was taken by Wharf.

Bill Cull refereed.

The teams follow:
Young Liberals—Moss, Coates, Mowat, Ralph, Knapp, Paul, Tutthill, Hetherington, Politano, Cosier, Carlrow and Wharf.
Sanich Thistles—Horsby, Leggett, A. Speller, L. Speller, Crowe, M. Speller, Carmichael, Hope, Wallace, DeGiralomo and McCorkill.

Commercial Softball League nines ushered in the season Saturday evening, with Mets and Klausner & Son scoring victories in the intermediate section and Vampires, Master Motors and Harris Cyclists finishing at the long end of the scores in the junior section.

Alderman James Adams officially opened the intermediate race when he heaved the first

At Heywood Avenue, where Rev. A. E. Whitehouse, honorary president, officially opened junior play, Harris Cyclists beat Mount Toimie, 15 to 6, while at Beacon Hill Park Vampires turned back Lake Hill Commercials, 9 to 3.

Pandora Avenue Survey Is Made

A preliminary survey of Pandora Avenue has been completed and data collected for the information of the Public Works committee in its consideration of improvements, it was learned at the City Hall today.

The committee will first decide what type of highway it wishes to make of the avenue before the engineering department can proceed.

Tentative plans call for a slightly less ambitious development scheme than that proposed several years ago.

A permit for $800 alterations to premises at 402 Michigan Street for Mrs. J. B. Dixon was issued at the city building inspector's department on Saturday.

HEAVY FINE ON DRIVING COUNT

Jagir Singh Assessed $100 As Result of Fatal Accident Last Year

Jagir Singh, 19-year-old East Indian, who was driving the car which struck and fatally injured Mrs. Eleanor Rutan on the night of September 11 last, was fined $100 in the City Police Court this morning on a charge of driving to the common danger.

The hearing was started Saturday and completed this morning. In finding Jagir guilty and imposing the penalty, Magistrate Henry Hall criticised the accused's act in swinging out from behind a car he was following when he saw Mrs. Rutan on Douglas Street. The court believed if the accused had followed the car in front of him the accident would never have occurred.

An option of 10 days' imprisonment was given with the fine.

ADMIT ATTACK ON CONSTABLE

Albert Smith and Arthur Hicks Guilty of Assaulting Police Officer

As the result of a scuffle on Yates Street on Saturday night in which Constable Ed. Sturrock was involved, two young men, Albert Smith and Arthur Hicks, pleaded guilty in the City Police Court this morning to a charge of assaulting a police officer in the execution of his duty.

Both men were remanded until tomorrow for sentence, after electing summary trial and admitting their guilt. They were advised by the court to have character witnesses appear for them tomorrow.

Constable Sturrock said he had seen the two men scuffling outside a Yates Street cafe and intervened to stop the fight. On his entry into the fray both men turned on him. He ducked a punch from one while the other knocked his hat off.

Just at that time, the constable said, Constable John Howe had come along and got hold of Smith, while Sturrock continued his struggle with Hicks, whom, he testified, was very abusive and using obscene language.

Basil Cameron Leaves Seattle

Dr. Nikolai Sokoloff Is New Conductor of Seattle Symphony

Word was received here today from Seattle that Dr. Basil Cameron, for the last six years conductor of the Seattle Symphony Orchestra, and well known here for his annual concerts, has been replaced by Dr. Nikolai Sokoloff, founder of the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. Cameron had many friends in Victoria who will regret that he will no longer visit here at the head of the splendid orchestra he developed. It was his custom to bring his orchestra to Victoria each autumn for a concert at the Royal Victoria Theatre, and always the house was sold out.

The change was made because his campaign for the orchestra's sustaining fund fell short of expectations. The decision of the board of directors was cable to Dr. Cameron in London and took him completely by surprise, friends in Seattle said.

"The sustaining fund campaign for the symphony fell far short of the goal this year, and thus both the conductor's and the musicians' pay will have to be greatly decreased," said Mrs. Ruth McCreery, executive secretary of the orchestra.

"Musicians' rate of pay will be the same, but they will play a shorter season."

Dr. Cameron's departure will be a real loss to the musical community of Seattle," said George H. Greenwood, president of the symphony. "During his term as conductor he has built the orchestra into an outstanding musical aggregation well able to take its place among the leading orchestras of the country."

Dr. Sokoloff, who no doubt will be seen conducting the Seattle symphony here next fall, founded the Cleveland symphony and served as its conductor for 15 years, until 1933. Since that time he has served as national director of United States government musical projects, supervising work of 127 symphony orchestras and 10,000 musicians throughout the United States.

One tender only has been received at the City Hall today for the erection of the big flagpole at Beacon Hill. That, with tenders for cutting hay, will probably be dealt with at tonight's meeting of the City Council.

Home Defence Support Urged

Col. H. F. Letson of Vancouver Says Defence Duty of Civilians

"If we expect help in time of need we must expect to give aid in return. If Australia were attacked, or London, I do not think we could sit by and not lend our aid," said Lieut.-Colonel H. F. Letson, officer commanding Vancouver's 14th Brigade, when he spoke to members of the Chamber of Commerce this afternoon in Spencer's dining-room.

The Statute of Westminster, he said, gave Canada full nationality, with which went responsibility for defence.

"Never was the time more opportune and never was there more urgency for a calm consideration of defence problems," Col. Letson said, adding 20 years had dulled the memory of most people to the need for adequate defence.

"Our primary object is the preservation of peace and the maintenance of our democratic life," he said. "You must remember if a country is strong it is seldom attacked. We in Canada assert our independence and yet we rely for our defence on the pockets of taxpayers of other nations."

Col. Letson said the great detriment to war at the present time was the great rearmament program now being carried on so courageously by the British people.

CANADA FAVORED

Geographically, he said, Canada was a most favored nation, with ocean barriers on two sides, the Arctic Ocean on the north and a friendly nation, with whom conflict is unthinkable, to the south. Because Canada was so favored its inhabitants had settled into a calm complacency about defence matters, he said. If ever there were an invasion of Canada the people would be dependent on the British and United States navies for aid.

It would not be unnatural for land hungry nations to cast an eye on the vast Canadian land and if there were an invasion it would most likely be water-borne, Col. Letson said. Action could be expected against ships and docks. An attack would be of the hit-and-run variety. To repel such an attack an adequate navy and air force would be necessary, with coast and anti-aircraft artillery ashore.

NEEDS SUPPORT

The present Canadian navy, Col. Letson said, had a fine personnel, but would not be adequate in time of need without support. The Air Force personnel was well trained, but were entirely lacking in modern equipment. It was necessary to be ready, for in these days a warning period to war was non-existent.

Col. Letson told of the difficulties faced for years by the permanent and non-permanent militia of Canada—lack of support from the public, ill-fitting boots and clothes. Defence of Canada was as much the duty of civilians as it was of the militia, he said. Material was of no use without the men.

He urged his business-men audience to give every encouragement to defence of Canada, and to allow their employees time off to take training without holding such time against their regular holidays.

The meeting then passed a resolution urging that employers give every help to their employees to take military training "without their suffering handicap or embarrassment."

Invited to the luncheon were Col. J. R. Kingham, commanding officer of the 16th Canadian Scottish, Lieut.-Col. Vincent McKenna, commanding officer of the 5th Regiment, and Major A. G. Murchie.

Joseph Strauss, Engineer, Dies

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Joseph Strauss, 68, engineer for San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge and other world-famous structures, died today of a heart at-tack in his apartment here.

He was the originator of five types of the Strauss trunnion bascule bridge which is standard throughout the world, and also originated two types of lift bridges.

Among the 500 bridges he con-structed in the United States, Canada and European countries are the $12,000,000, Montreal-south shore and the Columbia River bridge at Longview, Wash., second largest of cantilever con-struction ever built.

After San Diego was dumped out of first place yesterday by losing a twin bill to Hollywood's Stars, 8 to 2 and 3 to 0, president Bill Lane announced Cedric Durst, outfielder, and one of the most popular players in the Padre lineup, would finish the season in a Hollywood uniform.

Lane transferred Durst's con-tract to the Stars to make room for the return of Rupert (Tommy) Thompson, Padre out-fielder, who was drafted by the Chicago White Sox at the end of the 1937 season. Durst will be in a Hollywood uniform for the Sa-cramento series this week.

Portland moved in to first place by splitting with Los Angeles.

Los Angeles uniform by dropping a pitching duel to Portland's Bill Thomas in the opener by a 5 to 4 score. In the nightcap a homer by Rip Russell gave the Angels their margin for a 3 to 2 victory.

After losing the opening 8 to 4, Seattle came back to nose out Oakland, 3 to 2, by virtue of a circuit clout in the fourth inning by outfielder Art Hunt, the league's leading home run swat-ter last season. Sacramento lost four games to the San Francisco Seals before they managed to take both ends of, the double-leader yesterday, 4 to 1 and 4 to 3.

CLIMBER HURT IN SNOWSLIDE

J. A. Duncan in Seattle Hospital After Warning Companion of Danger

SEATTLE (AP)—J. Alan Duncan, 22, has a fractured leg today because of his heroic effort to warn his companion on a mountain-climbing trip of a snowslide.

He said Al Howat, both members of the Washington Alpine Club, were descending Snoqualmie Mountain yesterday when he saw a bank of snow moving in their direction at the 6,000-foot level.

Duncan stopped, shouted to his friend and then leaped for a tree.

Howat reached safety, but Duncan was caught by the slide and hurled 100 feet down the mountain before he could clutch a nearby tree.

Howat, with the aid of Civilian Conservation Corps men, got him to the highway and rushed him to a Seattle hospital for treatment.

French Canada Plea Is Heard

Bilingualism Coast to Coast Urged Before Rowell Board

QUEBEC (CP) — A strongly worded plea for full recognition of minority rights under Confederation, especially nation-wide bilingualism and separate schools, was made before the Rowell Commission here today in its final Quebec session.

The present "dangerous state of tension" in Canada's constitutional structure was due in part to "school difficulties" in various provinces and denial to French-Canadians of the "integral rights of their language," according to the permanent committee of the French Language Congress in America. The committee's presentation was supplemented with submissions by affiliated organizations in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and the Maritime provinces.

"French-Canadians, anywhere in Canada, are in their motherland," the committee said. "They were the discoverers, the first occupants, and the first settlers of our country. The arrival of men speaking another tongue and the change of allegiance should not obscure the history of the discovery and the first settlements."

SOCIAL LEGISLATION

"Generally the committee feels it would be dangerous to vest in the federal authority what is termed as social legislation, or labor legislation," it said. "Provinces are not industrialized to the same extent. Each province has its own special conditions."

The French-Canadian Educational Association of Manitoba said: "Today in Manitoba, the language of the discoverers is treated in complete defiance of laws having the character of pacts, of promises and undertakings of honor."

French-Canadians could not help being alarmed at seeing their co-religionists compelled, for want of means, to send their children to schools which were becoming more indifferent from the standpoint of religion. "As a result our youth are growing up in ignorance of their duties to God, foundation of national and social duties."

FRANCE TO GET 100 U.S. PLANES

PARIS (AP)—The Air Ministry announced tonight that 100 airplanes had been ordered from United States manufacturers to fill a gap left by the failure of French industry to meet the ministry's urgent orders.

The ministry said, however, no further orders in the United States were contemplated in view of efforts to stimulate French production of warplanes.

Informed quarters said a French military aviation mission was preparing to go to the United States soon in connection with the airplane purchases.

Haile Selassie Is Broken in Health

LONDON (CP-Havas)—"I am sick morally and physically," Emperor Haile Selassie replied Sunday night in response to an invitation to preside at a meeting of sympathizers.

The exiled Ethiopian sovereign returned to London Saturday and went to his home at Bath, where he will rest from the strain of his unsuccessful trip to Geneva to prevent removal of the League of Nations' ban against member-states' recognition of the Italian conquest of his former empire.

CARE URGED IN FRUIT MARKING

OTTAWA (CP)—Owing to the high standards of grading already maintained by British Columbia fruitgrowers in their exports to the United Kingdom, Hon. Grote Selinger, Conservative, Yale, believes the federal government should move slowly in applying its Canadian standard mark to boxed fruit, and would not do so without consulting shippers of that product.

"The shippers largely have their own brands which are established in the British and northern European markets," said Mr. Selinger.

In the House of Commons recently Mr. Selinger obtained from Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture, a statement that the government had not yet decided to apply the mark to boxed fruit and would not do so without consulting shippers of that product.

SMALL DEMAND LOWERS WHEAT

WINNIPEG (CP)—Weakness at Chicago and minor southern selling drove Winnipeg May futures down from advances of 1½ cents today. The drab session ended with wheat futures 2½ to 15 cents lower, May at $1.15, July $1.04½ and October 86½ cents.

Lack of export demand for Canadian wheat and failure of Chicago and Buenos Aires to follow Liverpool advances acted as a drag on Winnipeg dealings.

Liverpool closed ¼ to 1½ higher. Buenos Aires at 1½ to 1½ cents off.

No. 1 northern wheat eased slightly but spreads on other cash varieties held firm. Coarse grain dealings also were featureless with all commodities easing in late stages.

World wheat shipments last week totaled 10,617,000 bushels, about 500,000 higher than the previous week and 2,000,000 below those of last year. North American clearances were 3,691,000 bushels. Stocks afloat to Europe declined more than 1,000,000 bushels to 43,376,000 bushels.
